

1. Lo, Je - sus to the world ap - pears, The gen - tiles
 2. Whose birth the Star's bright rays re - vealed, Re - splen - dent
 3. Pro - strate the in - fant they a - dore, With lin - en
 4. When thir - ty cir - cling years were gone, Then per - fect
 5. How blest was John, who feared to lave That Sa - vior with re - demp - tion cheers; Let all the faith - ful,

 in th'e - the - real field; And guide the Ma - gi mean - ly swath - èd o'er; Con - fess him ve - ry man - hood he put on, And sought the Fount of in the cleans - ing wave, Whose Blood should be the

as is meet, His won - drous acts with hon - or greet.
 in the way, To him who in the man - ger lay.
 God, and bring A mys - tic tri - bute to their King.
 Bap - tism, free From taint of all im - pur - i - ty.
 might - y mean To wash the of - fence of na - ture clean.

9. A-men.

6. The Father's mandate, from the skies,
His royal sonship testifies;
The Spirit's power upon his head
In plenitude of grace is shed.
7. Be thou, with suppliant hearts we pray,
O Christ, our everlasting stay;
Whose wonderworking word divine
Bade waters redden into wine.
8. On us in mercy here below,
Thy help and comfort e'er bestow;
Exalt us, raised from death's domain,
Withthee above the stars to reign.
9. Due praise great Trinity, to thee,
All honor, power, and glory be;
Whom all created things adore,
Now henceforth and for evermore.
Amen.

Jesus refulsit omnium

Tr. John David Chambers (1805-93)