

1. Bless - èd Feasts of bless - èd Mar - tyr's, Saint - ly
 2. Faith un - blench - ing, hope un - quenching, Well - loved
 3. While they passed through di - vers tor - tures, Till they
 4. Where - fore made co - heirs of glo - ry, Ye that

1. days of saint - ly men, With af - fec - tion's
 2. Lord, and sin - gle heart, Thus they glo - rious
 3. sank by death op - prest, Earth's re - ject - ed
 4. sit with Christ on high, Join to ours your

1. rec - ol - lec - tions Greet we your re - turn a -
 2. and vic - to - rious Bore the Mar - tyr's hap - py
 3. were e - lect - ed To have por - tions with the
 4. sup - pli - ca - tions, As for grace and peace we

1. gain. Might - y deeds they wrought, and won - ders,
 2. part. Blood in slaugh - ter poured like wa - ter,
 3. blest. By con - tempt of world - ly pleasures,
 4. cry; That, this wea - ry life com - plet - ed,

1. while a frame of flesh they bore; We with meet - est
 2. Tor - ments long in heav - y chain, Flame, and axe, and
 3. And by might - y bat - tles done, Have they mer - i -
 4. And its man - y la - bors past, We may mer - it

1. praise and sweetest Hon - or them for ev - er - more.
 2. lac - er - a - tion, They en - dured, and con - quered pain.
 3. ted with An - gels To be knit for ay in one.
 4. to be seat - ed In our Fa - ther's home at last.

Text: O beata beatorum, before 12th cent.; Tr. J.M. Neale (1818-66)

Music: ALTA TRINITA BEATA, 87 87 D, Adapted from a melody in Laudi Spirituali, 14th cent., Florence; Harm. The English Hymnal, 1906