

1. Por - tal of the world's sal - va - tion, Lo, a vir - gin pure and mild,
 2. Here the ser - pent's power sub - du - ing, See the Bush unburned by fire,
 3. Jes - se's Branch re - ceived its Flow - er, Moth - er of Em - man - u - el,
 4. See in flesh so great a won - der By the power of God or - dained,-

1. Hum - ble - heart - ed, high in sta - tion, Form of beau - ty un - de - filed,
 2. Gid - eon's Fleece of heav - en's im - buing, Aa - ron's Rod of bright at - tire,
 3. Por - tal sealed and mys - tic Bow - er Promised by E - zek - i - el,
 4. Him, whose feet all worlds lay un - der, In a Vir - gin's womb con - tained;-

1. Crown of earth's an - ti - cip - a - tion, Comes the Moth - er - maid with child.
 2. Fair, and pure, and peace - en - su - ing, Spouse of So - lo - mon's de - sire.
 3. Rock of Dan - iel's dream, whose pow - er Smote, and low, the im - age fell!
 4. So on earth, her bonds to sun - der, Right - eous - ness from heav'n hath rained.

Text: Mundi salus affutura, 15th cent.; Tr. Laurence Housman (1865-1959)
 Music: COLLAUDEMUS 87 87 87, French Carol, The English Hymnal, 1906