

To be sung in unison.

1. Of all thy war - rior saints, O Lord, The por-tion, crown, and great re - ward:
 2. By wis-dom taught, they learned to know The van - i - ty of all be - low,
 3. Cou-ra-geous - ly the cross they bore, And ran the race of tor-ments sore;
 4. We there-fore pray thee, Lord of love, Re-gard us from thy throne a - bove;
 5. En-dur-ing laud and praise be done to God the Fa - ther, and the Son,

1. From all trans-gres-sions set us free Who sing thy mar-tyrs' vic - to - ry.
 2. The fleet-ing joys of earth dis-dained, And ev - er - last - ing glo - ry gained.
 3. For thee they poured their lives a - way, With thee they live in end-less day.
 4. On this thy Mar - tyrs' tri - umph day, Wash ev - ry stain of sin a - way
 5. And to the Ho - ly Par - a - clete, For end-less a - ges, as is meet.

5. A - men.

Deus tuorum militum
 Common of Martyr(s). Vespers.; Tr. J.M. Neale