

1. Lord, who shall sit be - side thee, Enthroned on eith - er hand,
2. Who drinks the cup of sor - row Thy Fa - ther gave to thee
3. Who o thy Pas-sion think - ing Can find in loss a gain,
4. O Je - sus, form with - in us Thy like-ness clear and true;
5. This law itself ful - fill - eth,- Christlike to Christ is nigh, And,

1. When clouds no long - er hide thee, 'Mid all thy faith-ful band?
2. 'Neath shad-ows of the mor - row In dark Geth-se-ma - ne;
3. And dare to meet un-shrink - ing Thy bap - ti - sm of pain.
4. By thine ex - am - ple win us To suf - fer or to do.
5. where the Fa - ther will - eth, Shall sit wiht Christ on high.

Text: William Romanis (1824-99)

Music: CHRISTUS DER IST MEIN LEBEN, 76 76, Melchior Vulpus (1560-1616); Harm. J.S. Bach (1685-1750)