

1. O glo - rious Lad - y throned in rest,
 2. What we had lost through hap - less Eve
 3. O Gate, through which hath passed the King,
 4. All hon - or, laud and glo - ry be,

1. A - midst the star - ry hosts a - bove,
 2. The Bloss - om sprung from thee re - stores,
 3. O Hall, whence Light shone through the gloom;
 4. O Je - sus, Vir - gin - born, to thee!

1. Who gav - est nur - ture from thy breast
 2. And, grant - ing bliss to souls that grieve,
 3. The ransomed na - tions praise and sing
 4. All glo - ry, as is ev - er meet,

1. To God, with pure ma - ter - nal love.
 2. Un - bars the ev - er - last - ing doors.
 3. Life giv - en from the Vir - gin womb.
 4. To Fa - ther, and to Par - a - clete. A - men.