

1. O Jo - seph, heav'n-ly hosts thy worth-i - ness pro - claim,
2. Thou, when thou didst be - hold thy Spouse a - bout to bear,
3. Thou with thy newborn Lord didst seek far E-gypt's land,
4. Not till death's hour is past do o - ther men ob - tain
5. O Ho - ly Trin - i - ty, thy suppliant servants spare;

And Chris - ten - dom con - spires to Were sore op - pressed with doubt, were
 As wan - d'ring pil - grims, ye fled
 The meed of ho - li - ness, and Grant us to rise to heav'n for cel - e - brate thy fame, Thou who in filled with won - d'ring care; At length the o'er the des - ert sand; That Lord, when glo - rious rest at - tain; Thou, like to Jo-seph's sake and prayer, And so our pur - est bonds were to the Vir - gin bound;

 An - gel's word thy an - xious heart re - lieved:
 lost, by thee is in the tem - ple found,
 An - gels made, in life com - plete - ly blest, grate - ful hearts to thee shall ev - er raise

How glo - rious is thy name re - nowned.
 She by the Spir - it hath con - ceived.
 While tears are shed, and joys a - bound.
 Dost clasp thy God un - to thy breast.
 Ex - ult - ing can - ti - cles of praise.

5. A - men.