

1. Now that the day - light fills the sky,
2. Would guard our hearts and tongues from strife;
3. Would keep our in - most con - science pure;
4. So we, when this new day is gone,
5. All laud to God the Fa - ther be;

- | | | | | |
|---------|---------|-------|--------|-------|
| 1. We | lift | our | hearts | to |
| 2. From | an | ger's | din | would |
| 3. Our | souls | from | fol | ly |
| 4. And | night | in | turn | is |
| 5. All | priase, | e | ter | nal |

- | | |
|--------------------|---|
| 1.God on high, | That he, in all we do or say, |
| 2.hide our life; | From all ill sights would turn our eyes; |
| 3.would se - cure; | Would bid us check the pride of sense |
| 4drawing on, | With conscience by the world un - stained |
| 5Son, to thee; | All glo - ry, as is ev - er meet, |

- 1Would keep us free from harm to - day:
2Would close our ears from van - i - ties:
3With due and ho - ly ab - sti - nence.
4Shall praise his name for vic - t'ry gained.
5. To God the ho - ly Par - a - clete. A - men.

Jam lucis orto sidere

5th cent.; Tr. John Mason Neale