

To be sung in unison.

1. Im - age e - terne of God most high,
 2. For thou a - lone, ere time be - gan,
 3. O flow - er of a Vir - gin - birth lie
 4. The race of men, con - demned to lie

Thou Light of Light, true God, to thee,
 Its hope and cent - ral - point to be—
 O head of all on earth who dwell,
 Be - neath the dire - ful tyr - ant's yoke,

Re - deem - er, laud and glo - ry be,
 The Fath - er just - ly grant - ed thee
 O stone that from the moun - tain fell
 By thee at length the shack - les broke

And king - ly reign o'er earth and sky.
 To rule each na - tion, tribe or clan.
 And with its vast - ness cov - ered earth!
 And claimed the Fa - ther - land on high.

7. A - - - - - men.

Aeterna imago Altissimi

Vittorio Genovesi, S.J., 1925

Tr. Hugh T. Henry, 1926.