

1. Thou on - ly Sa - vior! Might - y Lord! Whose love a ru - ined world re - stored;
 2. Who spitting, stripes, the chain, the spear, And cru - el buf - fet - ings didst bear;
 3. Thus death by death was ov - er - thrown, Our life re - cov - ered by thine own,
 4. All - glo - rious now, at God's right hand, Thou dost a hal - lowed vic - tim stand;

1. Bless now O Christ! in year - ly course, To us the glo - ry of thy Cross.
 2. And will to ascend the Cross of pain For us sal - va - tion to ob - tain.
 3. And Sa - tan vanquished, craft - y foe! The min - i - ster fo death and woe.
 4. Hear our pe - ti - tions! spare our guilt, For which thy precious blood was spilt.

4. A - men.

5. Henceforth may we unflinching run
 That holy course by thee begun;
 And, shield from all offence and loss,
 Lift up the Banner of the Cross!
6. Bestow our prayer, blest Trinity!
 Grant, undivided Unity,
 That all the gifts thy Cross imparts,
 May profit our repentant hearts. Amen.

Auctor Salutis Unicus
 Holy Saturday, Vespers. Tr. John David Chambers