

1. A bright - er dawn is break - ing And earth with praise is wak - ing
 2. And thou hast come vic - to - rious, With ris - en Bod - y glo - rious,
 3. O free the world from blind - ness, And fill the world with kind - ness,
 4. In sick - ness give us heal - ing, In doubt thy clear re - veal - ing,

1. For thou, O King most high - est The power of death de - fi - est;
 2. Who now for ev - er liv - est, And life a - bun - dant giv - est.
 3. Give sin - ners res - ur - rec - tion, Bring striv - ing to per - fec - tion;
 4. That praise to thee be giv - en In earth as in thy heav - en.

Text: Percy Dearmer (1867-1936)

Music: NUN LASST UNS GOTT, 77 77, Later form of a melody from Selnecker's Christliche Psalmen, Leipzig, 1587