

1. Bless-èd Mar - y, full of grace, Gaz - ing in - to Je - sus' face:
 2. Bless-èd Mar - y, far a - bove, Us poor sin - ners in thy love;
 3. Bless-èd Mar - y, un - de - filed, Sleep - ing may I be thy child,
 4. Bless-èd Mar - y, when I wake, Guard my thoughts for Je - sus' sake,

1. O! That I his face may see, Moth-er Mar - y, pray for me.
 2. O! That I might love like thee, Moth-er Mar - y, pray for me.
 3. Pure and ho - ly may I be, Moth-er Mar - y, pray for me.
 4. That of him my first may be, Moth-er Mar - y, pray for me.

5. Blessèd Mary, thou didst show,
 Patience under blame and woe.
 That, I too, may silent be,
 Mother Mary, pray for me.

6. Blessèd Mary, borne to rest,
 On thy Son and Savior's breast;
 Till his welcome I shall see,
 Mother Mary, pray for me.

Text: Anonymous

Music: MELLING, 77 77, John Fawcett in A new set of Sacred Music, 1822; Harm. Geoffrey Shaw (1879-1943)