

To be sung in unison.

1. Al-might - y Trin - i - ty in One, Whose sov-'reign pow'r all things has made,
 2. Full plen - i - tude of joy is yours, A - lone and per - fect, need - ing naught,
 3. O Fa - ther, fount of ev - 'ry grace, O Fa - ther's glo - ry, God the Son,
 4. To you, the Or - i - gin se - rene, The God-head one in Per - sons three,
 5. Your child - ren whom you have en - dowed With son - ship and a - dop - tion's gift,
 6. O liv - ing Light, grant us the grace To join the an - gels round your throne,

You rule the a - ges and the world, Be - fore all time You reigned sup - reme.
 Un - sul - lied, Sim - ple, Pur - i - ty, All things are held with - in your sway.
 O Ho - ly Spir - it of them both, Un - end - ing source of love div - ine.
 All things cre - a - ted owe their form And ev - 'ry beau - ty they con - tain.
 Beg you to make them tem - ples fair For your in - dwell - ing Spir - it's joy.
 That prais - ing you with grate - ful love, Cre - a - tion's hymn may nev - er end.

A - men.

Immensa et una, Trinitas
 Trinity Sunday. Vespers
 tr. St. Cecilia's Abbey, Hymns for the Liturgy of the Hours, 1979