

JOACHIM ESTNATA IRREG. proper Mode N plainsong
Harm. The Summit Choirbook, 1983

1. To Jo-achim is born Blessed daughter of the morn! From Anna did arise
She stay, splend'or of the skies The prophet's word now be-gins to come to pass, And to the world
shall sal-va-tion come at last. hap-py Jo-a-chim!
O happy mother Anne! 2. Now the dragon's neck trod up on shall be,
When the Immaculate Virgin earth shall see: Brightest star of morning,
Rose our land a-dorning hap-py Jo-a-chim! O happy mother Anne!
Now Jes-se's rod of old has blossomed af-ter a-ges:
Most wondrous bearing fruit, the prom-is-es of sag-es.
Parents of Christ's moth-er, brilliant shine their pris-es;
Bright as ne'er a-nother, Such mer-its and such gra-cies. O happy Jo-a-chim!
O happy mother Anne! 3. And now may both Jo-a-chim and An-na,
And too their most holy child Mar-ta, Bring us safely by their gra-cious plea
To Christ's king-dom where the bless-ed be:
Where now is reign-ing with her Son
Jo-a-chim and An-na's lit-tle one.

Joachim est nata
men.
Sequence for the Feast of St. Ann