

1. Christ, the fair glo - ry of the ho - ly An - gels, Thou who hast
2. Send thy Arch-an - gel, Mich-a-el, to our suc - cor; Peacemak - er
3. Send thy Arch-an - gel, Gab - ri - el, the mighty; Her - ald of
4. Send thy Arch-an - gel, Raphael, the re - stor - er Of the mis -
5. May the blest Moth - er of our God and Sav - ior, May the as -
6. Fa - ther al - mighty, Son and Ho - ly Spir - it, God ev - er made us, thou who o'er us rul - est, Grant of thy mer - cy bless - èd, may he ban - ish from us Striv - ing and hat - red, heav - en, may he from us mor - tals Spurn the old ser - pent, guid - ed ways of men who wan - der, Who at thy bid - ding semb - ly of the Saints in glo - ry, May the ce - les - tial bless - èd, be thou our pre - serv - er; Thine is the glo - ry un - to us thy ser - vants Steps up to heav - en. so that for the peaceful All things may pros - per.

 watch - ing o'er the tem - ples Where thou art wor - shipped.
 strengthens soul and bod - y With thine an - oint - ing.
 com - pan - ies of An - gels Ev - er as - sist us.
 which the An - gels wor - ship, Veil - ing their fac - es.

6. A - - - - - men.

Christe, sanctorum decus Angelorum ascr. Rabanus Maurus, 9th cent.

Tr. Athelstan Riley, 1906