

1. O Christ, the Fath - er's splen - dor bright, O
 2. Your house - hold shines with ra - di - ance; Do -
 3. God's on - ly Son who reigns a - bove, Whom
 4. You, Jo - seph, in your low - li - ness, Are

1. Ma - ry, Vir - gin moth - er fair, And Jo - seph, cho - sen
 2. mest - ic vir - tues blos - som forth, For there the ve - ry
 3. an - gels mar - vel to be - hold, Now in a ser - vant's
 4. giv - en charge in God's de - sign, And, Ma - ry, your au -

1. guar - di - an En - trust - ed with their lov - ing care,
 2. source of grace Springs up a - fresh up - on the earth.
 3. form is born To serve his ser - vants here be - low.
 4. thor - i - ty Serves al - so in the plan di - vine.

4. 7. A-men.

5. Surpassing royal palaces,
Your meager walls take pride of place,
Whence first began the life of Christ,
Salvation for the human race.
6. O Jesus, Mary, Joseph blest,
Grant us a home with you above
To reign in Heaven with the saints,
Who share eternal gifts of love.
7. To you, O Christ, our source of hope,
Be glory and unending praise,
Who through your parents lead us home
To live in Heaven all our days. Amen.

Christe, splendor Patris
Tr. Dylan Schrader, 2014