

1. In splen - dour ar - rayed, In ves - ture of gold,
 2. O Mai - den thou art A Moth - er re - nowned;
 3. All kin - dreds and tongues Thine Off - spring a - dore,
 4. The Fa - ther we praise, Who chose for his Son

1. The Moth - er of God In glo - ry be - hold!
 2. A Moth - er who yet As Vir - gin art crowned;
 3. Cre - a - tion must bow His foot - stool be - fore;
 4. A Moth - er all - pure, Th'im - ma - cu - late one.

1. O Daugh - ter of Da - vid, Thou dwell - est on high,
 2. The Lord of the An - gels, God high and su - preme,
 3. At thy gen - tle plead - ings May he from his height
 4. All praise to her off - spring Who sav - eth our race;

1. Ex - cel - ling in bright - ness The hosts of the sky.
 2. Took flesh of thy sub - stance, The world to re - deem.
 3. Dis - perse all our sha - dows And fill us with light.
 4. Like praise to the Spir - it, Who filled her with grace.

Text: Anonymous

Music: HANOVER, 10 10 11 11, William Croft (1678-1727), 1708