

To be sung in unison.

1. Al - might - y Trin - i - ty in One, Whose sov - 'reign
2. Full plen - i - tude of joy is yours, A - lone and
3. O Fa - ther, fount of ev - 'ry grace, O Fa - ther's
4. To you, the Or - i - gin se - rene, The God - head
5. Your child - ren whom you have en - dowed With son - ship
6. O liv - ing Light, grant us the grace To join the pow'r all things has made, You rule the a - ges per - fect, need - ing naught, Un - sul - lied, Sim - ple, glo - ry, God the Son, O Ho - ly Spir - it

 one in Per - sons three, All things cre - a - ted and a - dop - tion's gift, Beg you to make them
 an - gels round your throne, That prais - ing you with and the world, Be - fore all time You reigned sup - reme.

 Pur - i - ty, All things are held with - in your sway.
 of them both, Un - end - ing source of love div - ine.
 owe their form And ev - 'ry beau - ty they con - tain.
 tem - ples fair For your in - dwell - ing Spir - it's joy.
 grate - ful love, Cre - a - tion's hymn may nev - er end.

A - - - - men.

Immensa et una, Trinitas

Trinity Sunday. Vespers

tr. St. Cecilia's Abbey, Hymns for the Liturgy of the Hours, 1979