

Je - sus, grant me this, I pray,      Ev - er in thy heart to stay;
 If the e - vil one pre-pare,      Or the world, a tempting snare,
 If the flesh, more dan-grous still,      Tempt my soul to deeds of ill,
 Death will come one day to me;      Je - sus, cast me not from thee:

1.      Let me ev - er-more a - bide      Hid - den in thy wounded side.
 2.      I am safe when I a - bide      In thy heart and wounded side.
 3.      Naught I fear when I a - bide      In thy heart and wounded side.
 4.      Dy - ing let me still a - bide      In thy heart and wounded side.

Text: Dignare me, O Jesu, rogo te, 17th cent.; Tr. Henry W. Baker (1821-1877)
 Music: SONG 13, 77 77, Orlando Gibbons (1583-1625), original melody and bass