

Harm. Peter Wagner (1865-1931)

1. Hail, thou who man's Re - deem - er art,
2. What name - less mer - cy thee o'er-came,
3. The reams of woe are forced by thee,
4. Let mer - cy sweet with thee pre - vail,
5. Be thou our joy and thou our guard,

1. Je - sus, the joy of
2. To bear our load of
3. Its cap - tives from their
4. To cure the wounds we
5. Who art to be our

1. ev' - ry heart; Great Mak-er of the world's wide frame,
2. sin and shame? For guilt-less, thou thy life didst give,
3. chains set free; And thou, a - mid the ran - somed train,
4. now be-wail; Oh, bless us with thy ho - ly sight,
5. great re-ward; Our glo - ry and our boast in thee

1. And pur - est love's de-light and flame.
2. That sin - ful, err - ing man might live.
3. At God's right hand dost vic - tor reign.
4. And fill us with e - ter - nal light.
5. For ev - er and for ev - er be. A - men.

Iesu, nostra redemptio

Tr. Thomas J. Potter (1828-1873)