

To be sung in unison.

1. Im - age e - terne of God most high, Thou Light of Light, true God, to thee,
 2. For thou a - lone, ere time be - gan, Its hope and cent - ral - point to be—
 3. O flow - er of a Vir - gin - birth O head of all on earth who dwell,
 4. The race of men, condemned to lie Be - neath the dire - ful tyr - ant's yoke,

Re - deem - er, laud and glo - ry be, And king - ly reign o'er earth and sky.
 The Fath - er just - ly grant - ed thee To rule each na - tion, tribe or clan.
 O stone that from the moun - tain fell And with its vast - ness cov - ered earth!
 By thee at length the shack - les broke And claimed the Fa - ther - land on high.

7. A - men.

5. Lawgiver, priest and teacher, God—
 With these the title well accords
 Of 'King of kings and Lord of lords'
 Upon thy vesture writ in blood.

6. With grateful hearts thy rule we bless
 Who justly reignest over all:
 Them only truest joys befall
 Who thee as king and lord confess.

7. To thee, O Jesus, ruling o'er
 Earth's rulers all, be glory meet,
 With Father and the Paraclete,
 Throughout the ages evermore! Amen.

Aeterna imago Altissimi
 Vittorio Genovesi, S.J., 1925
 Tr. Hugh T. Henry, 1926.